Aadhar Housing Finance Limited

KNOW YOUR CUSTOMER [KYC] & ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING (AML) MEASURES POLICY – (REVISED)

1. Introduction

The Company, Aadhar Housing Finance Limited (AHFL- formerly known as DHFL Vysya Housing Finance Ltd.) was incorporated in the year 1990 and registered with the National Housing Bank (NHB). The Company has adopted the KYC & AML Policy (Policy) as per the requirements of NHB, as well as modified and revised this Policy from time to time as appropriate, with the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company.

This Policy had initially been formulated pursuant to the notification issued by the NHB on Know Your Customer (KYC) Guidelines and Anti-Money Laundering Standards bearing reference No. NHB (ND)/DRS/Pol-No.13/2006 dated 10th April, 2006 and as part of the best corporate practices. The Policy was revised and updated in line with the amendment in the guidelines issued by the NHB vide its Circular No. NHB/ND/DRS/Pol. No. 33/2010 -11 dated 11th October, 2010 and further amendments from time to time as per Master Circular NHB(ND)/DRS/REG/MC-04/2018 July 2, 2018 and circular on KYC guidelines and Anti-Money Laundering standards circulated by NHB vide Circular No. NHB/ND/DRS/Policy Circular No. 94/ 2018-19, March 11, 2019.

This Policy was further reviewed and modified and approved by the Board at its meeting held on 24th April, 2018 and was also reviewed and modified and duly approved by the Board at its meeting held on 30th April, 2019 and further the Board of Directors has also reviewed and modified and duly approved the Policy at their meeting held on 18th August, 2020, as per the Circular No. RBI/2019-20/235, DOR.NBFC (HFC).CC.No.111/03.10.136/2019-20 dated May 19, 2020 and also no. RBI/DBR/2015-16/18 Master Direction DBR.AML.BC.No.81/ 14.01.001/2015-16 dated April 20, 2020, to adopt the provisions of the RBI Master Directions on Know Your Customer (KYC) Direction, 2016 (“ Master Directions on KYC/ Directions”). Further the Board of Directors has also reviewed & modified and duly approved the Policy at their meeting held on 28th May, 2021, which is updated till the Circular No. RBI/2021-22/35 DOR.AML.REC.No.15/14.01.001/2021-22 dated 10th May, 2021, regarding Amendment to the Master Direction (MD) on KYC.

Further, in terms of the provisions of Prevention of Money-Laundering Act, 2002 and the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005 (as amended from time to time) notified by the Government of India, the Company was required to follow certain customer identification procedures, while onboarding and undertaking transactions either by establishing an account based relationship or otherwise and monitor their transactions. AHFL shall take steps to implement provisions of Prevention of Money-Laundering Act, 2002 and the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005, as applicable and as amended from time to time. This Policy, thus, has been framed to know/understand customers and their financial dealings better which in turn would help the Company manage their risks prudently and avoid being used by criminal elements for money laundering activities.

This Policy is now being revised pursuant to the latest amendments circulated by Reserve Bank of India (RBI) vide Circular No. Master Direction DBR.AML.BC.No.81/ 14.01.001/2015-16 updated on May 10, 2021 , to make the necessary updates as per the aforesaid provisions of the RBI Master Directions on Know Your Customer (KYC) Direction, 2016 (“Master Directions on KYC/ Directions”), including operational instructions issued in pursuance of such amendment(s). This Policy shall have immediate effect, from the date of approval of the Board.

CHAPTER I

APPLICABILITY AND DEFINITIONS

2. Applicability

This Policy shall apply to every entity regulated by Reserve Bank of India, more specifically as defined in 3 (b) (xiii) of Master Directions on KYC, except where specifically mentioned otherwise.

This Policy shall also apply to those branches and majority owned subsidiaries of the Company which are located abroad, to the extent they are not contradictory to the local laws in the host country, provided that:

- i. where applicable laws and regulations prohibit implementation of these guidelines, the same shall be brought to the notice of the RBI.
- ii. in case there is a variance in KYC/AML standards prescribed by the RBI and the host country regulators, branches/ subsidiaries of the Company are required to adopt the more stringent regulation of the two.
- iii. branches/ subsidiaries of foreign incorporated banks may adopt the more stringent regulation of the two i.e. standards prescribed by the Reserve Bank of India and their home country regulators.

Any reference to account in this Policy shall be understood to refer to a loan account or a lending transaction. The Company can no longer accept deposits, however, the requirements will also apply to existing deposits, only to the extent relevant.

3. Definitions

For the purposes of the Policy, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms herein shall bear the meanings assigned to them in the Directions as well as the Prevention of Money-Laundering Act, 2002 read with the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005. Illustratively, in the context of this Policy, the following terms shall have the assigned meanings (subject to the provisions of the Directions, the Act and the Rules):

- i. “Aadhaar number” shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (a) of section 2 of the Aadhaar (Targeted Delivery of Financial and Other Subsidies, Benefits and Services) Act, 2016 (18 of 2016);
- ii. “Act” and “Rules” means the Prevention of Money-Laundering Act, 2002 and the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005, respectively and amendments thereto.

CHAPTER – II

GENERAL

4. The Policy, including any amendments and revisions, shall be duly approved by the Board of Directors of Company or any committee of the Board to which power has been delegated.

The Policy shall include following four key elements:

- (a) Customer Acceptance Policy;
- (b) Risk Categorization & Management;
- (c) Customer Identification Procedures (CIP); and
- (d) Monitoring of Transactions

5. Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Risk Assessment by Company

- (a) the Company will carry out ‘Money Laundering (ML) and Terrorist Financing (TF) Risk Assessment’ exercise periodically to identify, assess and take effective measures to mitigate its money laundering and terrorist financing risk for clients, countries or geographic areas, products, services, transactions or delivery channels, etc.

The assessment process should consider all the relevant risk factors before determining the level of overall risk and the appropriate level and type of mitigation to be applied. While preparing the internal risk assessment, Company shall take cognizance of the overall sector-specific vulnerabilities, if any, that the regulator/supervisor may share with the Company from time to time.

- (b) The risk assessment by the Company shall be properly documented and be proportionate to the nature, size, geographical presence, complexity of activities/structure, etc. of the Company. Further, the periodicity of risk assessment exercise shall be determined by the Board of the Company, in alignment with the outcome of the risk assessment exercise. However, it should be reviewed at least annually. For high risk customers, if any, the risk assessment exercise shall be undertaken on a half-yearly basis.
- c) The outcome of the exercise shall be put up to the Board or any committee of the Board to which power in this regard has been delegated, and should be available to competent authorities and self-regulating bodies.
- d) The Company will apply a Risk Based Approach (RBA) for mitigation and management of the identified risk and, accordingly, have Board approved policies, controls and procedures in this regard. Further, Company will monitor the implementation of the controls and enhance them if necessary.

6. Designated Director

- (a) A “Designated Director” means a person designated by the Company to ensure overall compliance with the obligations imposed under Chapter IV of the PML Act and the Rules and shall be nominated by the Board. The Company has nominated Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer as its “Designated Director” under this Policy and intimated the same to NHB/RBI and the FIU-IND.
- (b) The name, designation and address of the Designated Director shall be communicated to, including any changes to information previously submitted, the NHB/RBI and FIU-IND.
- (c) In no case, the Principal Officer shall be nominated as the 'Designated Director'.

7. Principal Officer

- (a) The Company will appoint a “Principal Officer” (preferably of the level of General Manager or immediately below the level of CMD/MD of the Company). The Company has appointed its Company Secretary as the Principal Officer under this Policy and intimated the same to NHB/RBI and the FIU-IND.
- (b) The Principal Officer shall be responsible for ensuring compliance, monitoring transactions, and sharing and reporting information as required under the law/regulations.
- (c) The name, designation and address of the Principal Officer shall be communicated to, including any changes to information previously submitted, the NHB/RBI and FIU-IND.

8. Compliance with Policy

- (a) The Company shall ensure compliance with this Policy through:
 - (i) Specifying as to who constitute ‘Senior Management’ for the purpose of KYC compliance.
 - (ii) Allocation of responsibility for effective implementation of policies and procedures.
 - (iii) Independent evaluation of the compliance functions of Company’s policies and procedures, including legal and regulatory requirements.
 - (iv) Concurrent/ internal audit system to verify the compliance with KYC/AML policies and procedures.
 - (v) Submission of quarterly audit notes and compliance to the Audit Committee.

- (b) The Company shall ensure that decision-making functions of determining compliance with KYC norms are not outsourced.

CHAPTER – III

Customer Acceptance Policy

9. The Company has framed a customer acceptance policy in the form of the Credit Policy of the Company.
10. Without prejudice to the generality of the aspects that the customer acceptance policy may contain, AHFL shall ensure that:
- (a) No customer is accepted, or loan account is opened, in anonymous or fictitious/benami name.
 - (b) No customer is accepted, or loan account is opened, where the AHFL is unable to apply appropriate CDD measures, either due to non-cooperation of the customer or non-reliability of the documents/information furnished by the customer.
 - (c) No transaction or loan account-based relationship is undertaken without following the CDD procedure.
 - (d) The mandatory information to be sought for KYC purpose while opening a loan account and during the periodic updation, is specified.
 - (e) ‘Optional’/additional information, as per the Credit Policy is obtained with the explicit consent of the customer after the loan account is opened.
 - (f) The Company shall apply the CDD procedure at the Branch/ UCIC level. Thus, if an existing KYC compliant customer of a Company desires to avail another loan facility with the same Company, there shall be no need for a fresh CDD exercise.
 - (g) CDD Procedure is followed for all joint applicants.
 - (h) Circumstances in which, a customer is permitted to act on behalf of another person/entity, is clearly spelt out.
 - (i) Suitable system is put in place to ensure that the identity of the customer does not match with any person or entity, whose name appears in the sanctions lists circulated by the RBI.
 - (j) No customer should be accepted, or loan account opened related to any person or entity whose name appears in any negative list issued by the RBI.
 - (k) Where Permanent Account Number (PAN) is obtained, the same shall be verified from the verification facility of the issuing authority.
 - (l) Where an equivalent e-document is obtained from the customer, Company will verify the digital signature as per the provisions of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000).
11. Customer acceptance policy shall not result in denial of financial facility to members of the general public, especially those, who are financially or socially disadvantaged.

CHAPTER – IV

Risk Categorization & Management

12. For Risk Categorization & Management, AHFL shall have a risk-based approach which includes the following.

- (a) Customers shall be categorised as Low, Medium and High Risk category, based on the assessment and risk perception of the Company.
- (b) Risk categorization shall be undertaken based on parameters such as customer's identity, social/financial status, nature of business activity, and information about the clients' business and their location etc. While considering customer's identity, the ability to confirm identity documents through online or other services offered by issuing authorities may also be factored in as given below:

This AML /Risk based categorization of a Customer is mentioned below, subject to any regulatory requirement as may be specified from time to time:

The Recommendations made by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) on Anti-money Laundering (AML) standards and on Combating Financing of Terrorism (CFT) standards should also be used in risk assessment.

CHAPTER V

Customer Identification Procedure (CIP)

13. The Company shall undertake identification of customers in the following cases:

- (a) Commencement of a loan account-based relationship with the customer.
- (b) When there is a doubt about the authenticity or adequacy of the customer identification data it has obtained.
- (c) Selling third party products as agents, selling their own products, payment of dues of credit cards/sale and reloading of prepaid/travel cards and any other product for more than rupees fifty thousand.
- (d) Carrying out transactions for a non-account-based customer, that is a walk-in customer, where the amount involved is equal to or exceeds rupees fifty thousand, whether conducted as a single transaction or several transactions that appear to be connected.
- (e) When the Company has reason to believe or having a suspicion that a customer is intentionally structuring a transaction into a series of transactions below the threshold of rupees fifty thousand.
- (f) The Company shall ensure that introduction is not to be sought while availing loan from AFHL.

14. For the purpose of verifying the identity of customers at the time of commencement of a loan account-based relationship, Company, shall at their option, rely on customer due diligence done by a third party, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) Records or the information of the customer due diligence carried out by the third party is obtained within two days from the third party or from the Central KYC Records Registry.
- (b) Adequate steps are taken by the Company to satisfy themselves that copies of identification data and other relevant documentation relating to the customer due diligence requirements shall be made available from the third party upon request without delay.
- (c) The third party is regulated, supervised or monitored for, and has measures in place for, compliance with customer due diligence and record-keeping requirements in line with the requirements and obligations under the PML Act.
- (d) The third party shall not be based in a country or jurisdiction assessed as high risk.

- (e) The ultimate responsibility for customer due diligence and undertaking enhanced due diligence measures, as applicable, will be with the Company.

CHAPTER VI

Part V - On-going Due Diligence

29. The Company shall undertake on-going due diligence of customers to ensure that their transactions are consistent with their knowledge about the customers, customers' business and risk profile; and the source of funds.
30. Without prejudice to the generality of factors that call for close monitoring following types of transactions shall necessarily be monitored:
- (a) Large and complex transactions, and those with unusual patterns, inconsistent with the normal and expected activity of the customer, which have no apparent economic rationale or legitimate purpose.
 - (b) Transactions which exceed the prescribed thresholds .
 - (c) High account turnover inconsistent with the profile of the customer.
 - (d) Providing third party cheques, drafts, etc.
31. The extent of monitoring shall be aligned with the risk category of the customer.

Explanation: High risk accounts have to be subjected to more intensified monitoring.

- (a) A system of periodic review of risk categorization of accounts, with such periodicity being at least once in six months, and the need for applying enhanced due diligence measures shall be put in place.

32. Periodic Updation

Periodic updation shall be carried out at least once in every two years for high risk customers, once in every eight years for medium risk customers and once in every ten years for low risk customers as per the following procedure:

a) Individual Customers:

No change in KYC information: In case of no change in the KYC information, a self-declaration from the customer in this regard shall be obtained through customer's email-id registered with the Company, customer's mobile number registered with the Company, digital channels (such as online banking / internet banking, mobile application of Company), letter etc.

Change in address: In case of a change only in the address details of the customer, a self-declaration of the new address shall be obtained from the customer through customer's email-id registered with the Company, customer's mobile number registered with the Company, digital channels (such as online banking / internet banking, mobile application of Company), letter etc., and the declared address shall be verified through positive confirmation within two months, by means such as address verification letter, contact point verification, deliverables etc.

Further, Company may obtain a copy of OVD or deemed OVD or the equivalent e-documents thereof, as defined in Section 3(a)(xiii) of Directions, for the purpose of proof of address, declared by the customer at the time of periodic updation.

Accounts of customers, who were minor at the time of opening account, on their becoming major: In case of customers for whom account was opened when they were minor, fresh photographs shall be obtained on their becoming a major and at that time it shall be ensured that CDD documents as per the current CDD standards are available with the Company. Wherever required, Company may carry out fresh KYC of such customers i.e. customers for whom account was opened when they were minor, on their becoming a major.

b) Customers other than individuals:

No change in KYC information: In case of no change in the KYC information of the Lega Entity (LE) customer, a self-declaration in this regard shall be obtained from the LE customer through its email id registered with the Company, digital channels (such as online banking / internet banking, mobile application of Company), letter from an official authorized by the LE in this regard, board resolution etc. Further, Company shall ensure during this process that Beneficial Ownership (BO) information available with them is accurate and shall update the same, if required, to keep it as up-to-date as possible.

Change in KYC information: In case of change in KYC information, Company shall undertake the KYC process equivalent to that applicable for on-boarding a new LE customer.

c) Additional measures: In addition to the above, Company shall ensure that,

The KYC documents of the customer as per the current CDD standards are available with it. This is applicable even if there is no change in customer information but the documents available with the Company are not as per the current CDD standards. Further, in case the validity of the CDD documents available with the Company has expired at the time of periodic updation of KYC, Company shall undertake the KYC process equivalent to that applicable for on-boarding a new customer.

Customer's PAN details, if available with the Company, is verified from the database of the issuing authority at the time of periodic updation of KYC.

Acknowledgment is provided to the customer mentioning the date of receipt of the relevant document(s), including self-declaration from the customer, for carrying out periodic updation. Further, it shall be ensured that the information / documents obtained from the customers at the time of periodic updation of KYC are promptly updated in the records / database of the Company and an intimation, mentioning the date of updation of KYC details, is provided to the customer.

In order to ensure customer convenience, Company may consider making available the facility of periodic updation of KYC at any branch.

The Company may at its option insist on the physical presence of the customer for the purpose of furnishing OVD or furnishing consent for Aadhaar authentication/Offline Verification, including if there are sufficient reasons that physical presence of the account holder/holders is required to establish their bona-fides. Normally, OVD/Consent forwarded by the customer through mail/post, etc., shall be acceptable.

The Company shall adopt a risk-based approach with respect to periodic updation of KYC. Any additional and exceptional measures, which otherwise are not mandated under the above instructions, adopted by the Company such as requirement of obtaining recent photograph, requirement of physical presence of the customer, requirement of periodic updation of KYC only in the branch of the Company where account is maintained, a more frequent periodicity of KYC updation than the minimum specified periodicity etc., shall be clearly specified in the internal KYC policy duly approved by the Board of Directors of Company or any committee of the Board to which power has been delegated.

- 33. In case of existing customers, the Company shall obtain the Permanent Account Number or equivalent e-document thereof or Form No.60, by such date as may be notified by the Central Government, failing which the Company shall temporarily cease operations in the account till the time the Permanent Account Number or equivalent e-documents thereof or Form No. 60 is submitted by the customer.

Provided that before temporarily ceasing operations for a loan account (i.e. suspending any further debits), the Company shall give the customer an accessible notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard. Further, Company shall include, in its internal policy, appropriate relaxation(s) for continued services for customers who are unable to provide Permanent Account Number or equivalent e-document thereof or Form No. 60 owing to injury, illness or infirmity on account of old age or otherwise, and such like causes. Such customer relationships shall, however, be subject to enhanced monitoring.

Provided further that if a customer having an existing loan-based relationship with the Company gives in writing to the Company that he does not want to submit his Permanent Account Number or equivalent e-document thereof or Form No.60, the Company shall close the loan account (i.e. suspend any further debits) and all obligations shall be appropriately settled after establishing the identity of the customer by obtaining the identification documents as applicable to the customer.

Explanation – For the purpose of this Section, “temporary ceasing of operations” in relation an account shall mean the temporary suspension of all transactions or activities in relation to that account by the Company till such time the customer complies with the provisions of this Section. In case of asset accounts such as loan accounts, for the purpose of ceasing the operation in the account, only credits shall be allowed.

- (c) The books of accounts of persons authorised by the Company including brokers/agents or the like, so far as they relate to brokerage functions of the company, shall be made available for audit and inspection whenever required.

Annex I

Digital KYC Process

- A. The Company shall develop an application for digital KYC verification process as far as possible, which shall be made available at customer touch points for undertaking KYC of their customers and the KYC process shall be undertaken only through this authenticated application of the Company, as far as possible. The KYC documents collected from all types of customers as per the Board approved Credit Policy of the company shall be considered as valid and binding, subject to the compliance of Regulatory provisions notified & circulated by the RBI / NHB.
- B. The access of the Application shall be controlled by the Company and it should be ensured that the same is not used by unauthorized persons. The Application shall be accessed only through login-id and password or Live OTP or Time OTP controlled mechanism given by the Company to its authorized officials.
- C. The customer, for the purpose of KYC, shall visit the location of the authorized official of the Company or vice-versa. The original OVD shall be in possession of the customer.
- D. The Company must ensure that the Live photograph of the customer is taken by the authorized officer and the same photograph is embedded in the Customer Application Form (CAF). Further, the system Application of the Company shall put a water-mark in readable form having CAF number, GPS coordinates, authorized official's name, unique employee Code (assigned by the Company) and Date (DD:MM:YYYY) and time stamp (HH:MM:SS) on the captured live photograph of the customer.
- E. The Application of the Company shall have the feature that only live photograph of the customer is captured and no printed or video-graphed photograph of the customer is captured. The background behind the customer while capturing live photograph should be of white colour and no other person shall come into the frame while capturing the live photograph of the customer.
- F. Similarly, the live photograph of the original OVD or proof of possession of Aadhaar where offline verification cannot be carried out (placed horizontally), shall be captured vertically from above and water-marking in readable form as mentioned above shall be done. No skew or tilt in the mobile device shall be there while capturing the live photograph of the original documents.
- G. The live photograph of the customer and his original documents shall be captured in proper light so that they are clearly readable and identifiable.
- H. Thereafter, all the entries in the CAF shall be filled as per the documents and information furnished by the customer. In those documents where Quick Response (QR) code is available, such details can be auto-populated by scanning the QR code instead of manual filing the details. For example, in case of physical Aadhaar/e-Aadhaar downloaded from UIDAI where QR code is available, the details like name, gender, date of birth and address can be auto-populated by scanning the QR available on Aadhaar/e-Aadhaar.
- I. Once the above mentioned process is completed, a One Time Password (OTP) message containing the text that 'Please verify the details filled in form before sharing OTP' shall be sent to customer's own mobile number. Upon successful validation of the OTP, it will be treated as customer signature on CAF. However, if the customer does not have his/her own mobile number, then mobile number of his/her family/relatives/known persons may be used for this purpose and be clearly mentioned in CAF. In any case, the mobile number of authorized officer registered with the Company shall not be used for customer signature. The Company must check that the mobile number used in customer signature shall not be the mobile number of the authorized officer.

J. The authorized officer shall provide a declaration about the capturing of the live photograph of customer and the original document. For this purpose, the authorized official shall be verified with One Time Password (OTP) which will be sent to his mobile number registered with the Company. Upon successful OTP validation, it shall be treated as authorized officer's signature on the declaration. The live photograph of the authorized official shall also be captured in this authorized officer's declaration.

K. Subsequent to all these activities, the Application shall give information about the completion of the process and submission of activation request to activation officer of the Company, and also generate the transaction-id/reference-id number of the process. The authorized officer shall intimate the details regarding transaction-id/reference-id number to customer for future reference.

L. The authorized officer of the Company shall check and verify that:- (i) information available in the picture of document is matching with the information entered by authorized officer in CAF. (ii) live photograph of the customer matches with the photo available in the document.; and (iii) all of the necessary details in CAF including mandatory field are filled properly.;

M. On Successful verification, the CAF shall be digitally signed by authorized officer of the Company who will take a print of CAF, get signatures/thumb-impression of customer at appropriate place, then scan and upload the same in system. Original hard copy may be returned to the customer.
